John was born in Chicago. He was baptized at Holy Innocents Church in 1938. He attended Franciscan High School and Pallotine High School.

John was an only child and never married but he made up for the lack of immediate family by his extended family of friends. He also had many godchildren. He was very devoted to his Salvatorian family.

In his early life, John served as a Chaplain's Assistant in the U.S. Army. He received a Certificate of Achievement for his service. He retired from Decones Hospital and went to work for a law firm in downtown Milwaukee and retired from there in 2000. He was a member of St. Margaret Mary Parish and used his gifts as a eucharistic minister to the homebound.

After retirement, John served as a volunteer minister at St. Anne's Nursing Home in the Pastoral Care Department. He helped in the chapel as an altar server and also decorated the Chapel for special occasions.

John will be remembered as a kind, loving, and giving man. He gave unselfishly to all those in need. Even though he had congestive heart failure, he did not slow down. He lived and loved life to the fullest. He even attended the birthday party of a friend the day before he died though he did not feel well.

John made his commitment in 2004. He loved being a Salvatorian and his dearest wish was granted when he was buried with his Salvatorian pin.

We know that John is enjoying his eternal reward. Using his favorite phrase, he would say to us..."You got that right".
